MISS COLEMAN BRIDE OF NELSON B. SMITH

The marriage of Miss Mary Isabelle Coleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Christian Coleman, of Spout Spring, and Nelson Berkley Smith, son of Dr. and Mrs. William Edward Smith, of Farmville, took place Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Spout Spring Baptist Church.

The Rev. Marvin Jacobs performed the double ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was provided by Miss Catherine Richardson, pianist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of peau de soie and chantilly lace. Her veil of illusion fell from a cluster of orange blossoms and pearls and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and white roses showered with feathered carnations.

Miss Carolyn Coleman, her sister's only attendant, wore a green stone slipper satin dress and carried a boquet of red roses.

Mr. Smith was his son's best man. Ushers were Kenneth Coleman and Beverly Martin, cousins of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will live in Hampton.

ROBINSON - MARTIN

The marriage of Miss Colyer Anne Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kincaid Martin, of Pamplin, to Richard Donald Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dale Robinson, of Appomattox, took place Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the Farmville Methodist Church Farmville.

The Reverend Alfred Knotts, Jr., pastor of the bride, performed the double ring cermony.

Brett Watson, of Darlington Heights played the nuptial music, Mrs. Robert Harris, of Pamplin, sang "Beloved, It Is Morn" and "Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown fashioned of silk taffeta, designed with snug bodice, bracelet length sleeves, and bateau neckline, which was appliqued with a band of re-embroidered Aloncon lace. Scrolls of lace accented the full floor length skirt, which had a fullness formed by unpressed pleats. Her full skirt swept into a chapel train. Her veil was a mantilla of French illusion edged with matching Aloncon lace, and she carried a boquet of white roses, stephanotis, baby breath, and an orchid.

Miss Luella Martin was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a ruby-red satin dress with a basque bodice, finished with a square neckline, and Italian length sleeves. The bell shaped skirt had a fullness in the back formed by a cluster of unpressed pleats. A flat tailored bow finished the waistline in the back. She wore a matching bandeau and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and pompoms.

The other attendants were Miss Mary Anderson cousin of the bride, of Richmond, Miss Eloise Reaser, of Pamplin; Miss Sandra Blythe; Mrs. Floyd Fleshman, Jr., Mrs. Bobby Phelps, sister of the groom; and Miss Jean Martin, cousin of the bride, all of Appomattox. Their dresses and bandeaux were identical in design to that of the honor attendant, but in alternating colors of ruby red and emerald green. They carried similar bouquets.

Lucy Lewis Martin, cousin of the bride, of Appomattox, was flower girl. She carried a basket of white pompoms. Her dress of white embroidered nylon was fashioned with a snugged bodice scoop neckline, and short sleeves. Her full short length skirt was finished with a deep hem. She wore a crushed girdle of emerald green satin at the waist, ending in a bow with streamers in the back.

Ralph Ingle, brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Jerry Coleman, brother of the bride; Ralph Ingle, both of Pamplin; Bobby Phelp, brother-in-law of the groom, Moses Dinkins, Omer Thompson, all of Appomattox; and Neil Chernault, of Prospect.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Martin entertained with a reception in the church social hall.

For a southern trip the bride chose for traveling a brown suit, mustard coat, brown accessaries, and an orchid from her bouquet.

HERE ARE 2 OF THE NEW JET-SMOOTH CHEVROLETS

WHICH ONE IS THE CONVERTIBLE AND WHICH THE HARDTOP?

Top one's our new Impala Sport Coupe whose steel roof line is a dead ringer for the Impala Convertible's below. But after rich new styling, what? In glamor and go, comfort and craftsmanship, here's all you'd reasonably expect of an expensive car. Except the expense.
Slip inside a Jet-smooth Chevrolet, relax and just notice how good you feel. Ready for action? Just flick the key and let 'er purr (your choice of two standard engines—a 135-hp 6 or 170-hp V8—or optional-at-extra-cost V8's way up to a 409-hp mile-shrinker). That gentle cradling motion you enjoy is Jet-smooth ride at work. And the rich interior and neat craftsmanship are Body by Fisher at work. Have your dealer give you the whole story. That's the work he loves best.
